

---

Maintenance Mechanic: 2nd Shift

SUMMARY:

The primary function of a Maintenance Technician is to diagnose the mechanical, electrical, pneumatic or hydraulic problem and then make the necessary repairs.

FUNCTIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES & DUTIES:

- Works well with others, fostering a team atmosphere.
- Maintains a clean, safe work area at all times.
- Comply with all GMP requirements.
- Capable of dismantling equipment, removing defective parts and reassembling without supervision.
- Able to read electrical schematics and blue prints; follow directions from manuals.
- Able to interpret work orders and complete timely.
- Willing to make suggestions on improvements on replacement substitutes.
- When necessary, is able to install plumbing circuits.
- Basic welding knowledge and welding skills.
- Be proficient in the use of hand tools, power tools and manual repair equipment.
- Able to demonstrate ability to create and implement solutions using PLC controllers and ladder logic programming.
- Shows insight with electrical circuits by using methodical steps while troubleshooting electrical problems.
- Demonstrate ability to use advance test equipment to troubleshoot and resolve problems with complex equipment and solutions.
- Demonstrate ability to design and fabricate electronic circuits.
- Ability to teach the operations of new and existing electronically operated equipment and systems to others.
- Able to follow complex procedures, do preventative maintenance and find hidden defects and correct, also update equipment.
- Able to read complex drawings and troubleshoot independently.
- Able to troubleshoot mechanical breakdowns and replace and update parts to resolve recurring causes.
- Able to read complex pneumatic and air logic drawings and troubleshoot independently, also can develop and install pneumatics circuits without assistance.
- Able to read and troubleshoot hydraulic circuits and systems and replace parts without assistance.
- Ability to perform simple mathematical calculations.
- Ability to read and record written instructions.
- Ability to work independently.
- Notify Supervision of any issues.
- Must adhere/comply with all Company policies, procedures and practices.
- Must have Lock Out/Tag Out Certification.
- Must have PIT (Power Industrial Truck) Certification
- All other duties as assigned.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

A Maintenance Technician will be accountable to the Maintenance Supervisor for fulfillment of his or her duties. The performance of a Maintenance Technician will be measured to the degree of his or her production levels and quality of work performed in these assigned areas.

EXPERIENCE:

Electrical, Mechanical, Plumbing and Millwright skills.

Experience with PLC's, high speed packaging equipment and bakery equipment a plus.

EDUCATION:

High School or equivalent.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS AND WORK ENVIRONMENT:

While performing the essential duties of this job, the employee must be able to stand, stoop, kneel, crouch and lift up to 50 lbs. and shared weight up to 100 lbs. Occasional exposure to airborne dust, high humidity and extremes of hot and cold are possible. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Apply in person to complete an employment application

Monday - Friday 8:00am - 4:00pm

Belmont & Sixth Avenue, York, PA 17403

or email resume to: Resumes@Stauffers.com